

Prayer For Your Marriage

Father in the name of Jesus. I thank you that my husband and I love each other with the God kind of love. We are like minded and are on one accord. We endure long and we are patient and kind towards each other. We are not envious of each other nor boil over with jealousy.

We are not boastful or vainglorious and we do not display ourselves haughtily. We are not arrogant nor inflated with pride. We are not rude towards each other and we do not act unbecomingly.

We do not insist on our own rights or our own way because the love of God in us is not self seeking; it is not touchy fretful or resentful.

We do not take account of the evil done to us and pay no attention to a suffered wrong. We do not rejoice at injustice and unrighteousness. But we rejoice when right and truth prevail.

We bear up under anything and everything that comes. We are ever ready to believe the best of each other. Our hopes are fadeless under all circumstances and we endure everything without weakening.

The love of God in us never fails. It never fades out or becomes obsolete or comes to an end. We delight and esteem each other. We are always ready and willing to forgive each other as God in Christ has forgiven us.

We are followers of God as dear children. We walk in love as Christ also loved us and given himself for us. We are heirs together of the grace of life.

We thank you that our marriage continues to grow stronger and stronger in your love and bond of unity.

We surround our marriage with your love and faith in your word because you watch over your word to perform it.

In the name of Jesus Christ we pray, Amen.
